Western Mass. Champions

There were a number of Western Mass. champions crowned this past calendar year. This past fall the Mohawk Trail volleyball team, Frontier field hockey team and Pioneer boys soccer team brought home Western Mass. championships. In the spring the Turners Falls and Greenfield softball teams won Western Mass. titles and in the winter, the Mahar boys basketball team and both the Mohawk Trail boys and girls ski teams won Western Mass. championships. A number of individuals took home Western Mass. titles as well. In the indoor track and field season Pioneer's Louise Flagollet won the girls high jump championship while Mohawk Trail's Chay Mojallali won the boys high jump title.

Frontier's Alex Schreiber took home a Western Mass. championship on the wrestling mats, winning it at 190.

This past spring saw six locals win Western Mass. outdoor track titles at the Western Mass. championship meet. Mahar's Nevaeh Scriber took first in the girls 400, Mojallali won the boys high jump, Mahar's Mitchell Krasco took home the title in the boys triple jump and 110 hurdles, Pioneer's Natalie Rios won the girls javelin, Frontier's Adrien Pazmandy won the boys pole vault while Mahar's Stellina Moore took first in the girls pole vault.
