Mohawk Trail field hockey's multiple goal scorers led it to a 3-1 win over Hampshire on Monday afternoon.

Sofiya Slocik Gritzner, Naomi Denouden and Teagan Donahue each scored for the Warriors. Kyiah Perris Howard also added some help with an assist off a goal. Chloe Moynihan was the lone goal scorer for the Raiders.

Rylie Simmons made six saves in net for Hampshire while Izabella Finn grabbed two saves for Mohawk Trail.

The victory marks the Warriors first win of the season after losing 10 straight. The Spartans not drop to 1-4-2 with the loss.

Mohawk Trail looks to keep the momentum rolling against Smith Academy on Tuesday, October 1 at 4:00 p.m. Hampshire will take on Belchertown on the same date and time.
